

MASTER BUILDERS ASSOCIATION

CODE OF ETHICS

Members of the Master Builders' Association of Western Australia (MBA) include builders, subcontractors, suppliers and kindred organisations. They operate in all sectors and regions of the building and construction industry in Western Australia.

This Code aims to establish a best practice guide for members.

MBA members are encouraged to promote the Code to others in the industry.

MBA expects its members to :

- 1. Act fairly and honestly in dealings with other MBA members, clients, prospective clients and kindred organisations.
- 2. Conduct business ethically and professionally and in a manner which will not bring the industry or MBA into disrepute.
- 3. Tender in good faith and according to the Australian Standard Code of Tendering.
- 4. Keep abreast of developments in the industry to maintain high workmanship standards and statutory compliance.
- 5. Not engage in misleading, deceptive or anti-competitive conduct.
- 6. Reject discrimination on the basis of age, race, gender, family status, sexuality, religion, impairment and political belief.
- 7. Comply with the spirit of this Code.
